Lunch & Learn Series for Young Professionals is taking shape

Members of the Chamber's Young Professionals are sure to gain valuable tips on nutrition and exercise at the group's first "Lunch & Learn" next week.

Dr. Brian B. Parr, assistant professor in the Department of Exercise and Sports Science at USCA, will share with the 22- to 39-year olds how to start an exercise program to get in shape for summer and beyond. He'll also speak on the value of starting a healthful lifestyle now through proper nutrition and appropriate exercise for lifelong health and wellness. The "Lunch & Learn,"

Dr. Brian B. Parr
